DISFIGURED SIX MORE MONUMENTS

Nine Monuments so far are found to have been battered by Vandal's Hammer. Several of them Back of Big Round Top.

Six more monuments, in addition to those reported in The Times yesterday have been broken and defaced, two of them being among the best pieces of sculpture on the battlefield. Discovery of the additional damage was made on Wednesday when the following memorials were found disfigured, Grant's Vermont Brigade, the 40th New York, 6th Maine, 5th Wisconsin, 6th New Jersey, and 49th Pennsylvania.

The 40th New York is located in the Valley of Death and is the figure of a soldier kneeling and ready for action. This was broken in much the same way as the 96th Pennsylvania. The man's face was battered, his foot crushed and the gun broken.

The Grant Brigade monument—one of the most distinctive on the field—is located on Wright avenue back of Big Round Top. It is surmounted by a large granite lion with jaws wide open. The carving is specially fine and the monument has always been the subject of much admiration. The lower jaw was completely broken off and the tail was crushed.

The 6th Maine, 5th Wisconsin and 49th Pennsylvania memorials are located on Howe avenue back of Big Round Top and east of the Taneytown road. All three had the corners chipped off while the hammers on the guns of the last named were battered.

The 6th New Jersey, a shaft also located in the Valley of Death, was damaged by having the corners chipped.

At each of the nine monuments the vandal left the broken pieces lying where they fell and this was the only redeeming feature of the whole deed for it allows at least the restoration of the monuments. The broken fragments have all been gathered and placed in the office of the National Park Commission and efforts will be made to put them back in position with a cement corresponding closely in color to the original stone.

The route of the outlaw is very clearly mapped out. He evidently started his work of destruction at Sedgwick's headquarters near Rosentel's. From there he went into the Valley of Death where he battered the 96th Pennsylvania and the 40th New York. Proceeding, he went up between the two Round Tops and back to the Taneytown road where he finished his most inexplicable and unpardonable destruction. It is possible that he may have covered the same route starting at the Taneytown road and finishing at the Sedgwick monument.

The scenes of the depredations have been much visited since the discovery was first made and on all sides there is the most general indignation over the outrage. Everywhere is expressed the hope that officers may be quick to apprehend the guilty party or parties and that they may be brought to stern and speedy justice. Nothing will be spared to find out who committed the deed.

Theories as to the motive are numerous but no clue whatever is yet in the hands of the investigators. That the man was not drunk is generally conceded for the work was evidently carefully planned and mapped out. In every instance the effort seemed to be to cause damage at the point where it would be most noticeable and there was not the evidence of random destruction which would have been the case had the deed been perpetrated by an intoxicated man. Then, too, it is felt that no drunken man would have persisted in the work and carried it over such a large territory, extending as it does for well onto two miles.

Many believe that the "spite" theory will answer the case and that some man, refused a position on the battlefield force, may have vented his wrath in this way or that some one with another grievance against the commission, or others connected with its work, showed his displeasure by defacing battlefield property.

BURGLAR VISITS P. A. MILLER HOME

Early Evening Intruder Creates Alarm and Much Excitement. House Searched but Thief Made Good his Escape. Money Missing.

Mrs. Pius A. Miller and daughter, Miss Mary Miller, returned to their home on Baltimore street about eight o'clock Wednesday evening to find that a burglar had entered their house and had evidently beaten a hurried retreat when he heard them come in. The affair became quickly noised about town and a large crowd gathered on the scene. The house was thoroughly searched by officers and citizens but nothing was found of the intruder.

It is believed that some checks and considerable money were taken from a box in Mr. Miller's desk but he is out of town for several days and the exact amount of the loss will not be known until his return.

Mrs. Miller and her daughter had gone to the Photoplay Theatre earlier in the evening and upon their return noticed that Mr. Miller's desk in the front room had been moved from its customary place and opened. Papers were thrown about on the desk and everything was in a state of disorder. Realizing what had occurred and, thoroughly frightened, Mrs. Miller ran quickly to the home of William Hersh next door and Mr. Hersh, armed with a revolver, made a preliminary investigation.

He was soon joined by Deputy Sheriff Brinkerhoff and Officer Emmons who, with other members of the Miller family and friends, went through the house thoroughly but could find no one. An open window in the rear of the house showed where entrance had been gained and an open door indicated where the would-be thief had made a hasty exit.

The only place where he had disturbed things was the front room which Mr. Miller uses as his office. Here the desk in which he keeps many documents and money was opened. The desk stands at the window and it was moved aside, evidently to hide the thief from passers-by. Mr. Miller's safe in which he keeps his more valuable papers is in the same room but was not molested.

The box in the desk from which the money and checks are thought to have been taken was opened. Mr. Miller was accustomed to keep remittances from telephone subscribers in this box and it is believed by the other members of the family that considerable small change and many checks are missing.

The officers have as yet succeeded in getting no definite clue as to the identity of the unwelcome visitor.

WILLIAM REX --MISS HEWITT

Gettysburg Business Man and Former Waynesboro School Teacher Married at Church Wedding in the Latter Town.

The ceremony was performed in front of the altar which was elaborately banked with ferns. To the "Lohengrin" wedding march, played by W. B. Stottlemeyer, the wedding party entered at the east side of the church.

The bride was attired in a dark blue traveling suit and carried a bunch of bride roses. She was attended by Miss Jane Waynant as maid of honor. Harry Himes, of Gettysburg, was best man. The ushers were: Scott Rex, Wm. E. Bowers, Hugh Davis and Emanuel S. Wolf. ## THREE ROUTES

Three Routes Suggested for East Berlin-York Trolley Line.

The route of the proposed York-East Berlin Electric Road will probably be decided upon at a public meeting to be held Saturday night in the Evangelical church, East Berlin, of all those citizens along the proposed routes. Three routes are being considered and it will rest with the people along the routes as to which of the three will be selected. It is understood that the farmers and land owners from Taxville to York city have offered the land necessary for the right of way gratis. This is the best inducement yet received by the committee, but some of the other routes may be heard from. The routes are as follows: passing through Bigmount, Davidsburg and Weiglestown; passing through Swam, Admire and Taxville, and passing through Swam, Admire and Weiglestown.

NO BOND ISSUE SAY FARMERS

Straban Grange Votes almost Unanimously against Proposed Fifty Million Dollar Road Bond Issue. Held Discussion.

At a meeting of Straban Grange at Hunterstown this week an interesting discussion was held relative to the proposed constitutional amendment to allow the Legislature to issue State bonds in the amount of $50,000,000 for the purpose of road building, the questions being whether the money could not be more properly raised by small additional tax of personal and corporate property than by a bond issue and whether the funds, by whatever method they may be gotten, would be fairly and judiciously expended.

It was generally admitted that the highways of Pennsylvania should be improved and that the State should construct and maintain good roads; but it was the idea of the members that the funds required could be obtained by a more equitable system of taxation, obviating the necessity for a bond issue, the members claiming that corporations do not now bear their fair share of the burden of public financial needs; and the fear was expressed that a considerable part of the money would go as graft or be used for political purposes.

A vote was taken which showed an almost unanimous opinion against the proposed amendment.

The subject will be continued at the next meeting on Monday, March 17.

SIXTY-SIX SAILORS DROWN

German Torpedo Boat Destroyer Run Down by Cruiser.

Helligoland, Germany, March 6. — Sixty-six of the crew of the German torpedo boat destroyer "S 178" were drowned when the little vessel was run down by the cruiser York in the North sea.

Among the dead are the commander of the torpedo boat, Lieutenant Koch, and his first officer. The surgeon, engineer and fifteen men of the crew were saved. The torpedo boat sank immediately.

The "S 178" was returning during the night from maneuvers in which it had participated with the German battleship fleet, the cruiser squadron and sixty-four other torpedo boat destroyers.

The destroyers attempted to pass through the intervals in the column of warships while the latter were steaming ahead at full speed. The commander of the "S 178" calculated the distance incorrectly and his boat was cut completely in halves by the cruiser York and sank instantly.

The York signaled the accident to the other vessels of the fleet, which slowed down and cruised around in the vicinity, flashing their searchlights in all directions. Small boats were lowered in picking up two of the officers and fifteen of the crew of the sunken destroyer.

LIPTON CHALLENGES FOR AMERICA'S CUP

Sir Thomas Wants Series of Yacht Races in 1914.

London, March 6.—A challenge by the Royal Ulster Yacht club for a series of races for the America's cup, to take place in 1914, made on behalf of Sir Thomas Lipton, is on its way to America. The challenge is for competitions under the old rules.

Sir Thomas Lipton, who has just returned from America, when questioned on the subject, said there was no truth in the report that a challenge. The New York Yacht club, he added, has been notified both by the Royal Ulster Yacht club and Sir Thomas Lipton personally of the dispatch of the challenge.

Sir Thomas Lipton expressed considerable surprise when asked about the truth of the report that a challenge for the America's cup had been sent to New York. He had endeavored to keep it secret until the delivery of the challenge to the New York Yacht club. "For reasons of courtesy," Sir Thomas regretted that he was compelled to withhold some of the details.

Sir Thomas added, however, that his prejudices against the old "dead end" rules had been overcome and that he had challenged for a series of races under the old conditions. The British yachtsman expressed the hope that with luck on his side he would win the race, adding that he wanted to do it without being the recipient of any favors.

WILL SPEND $27,000,000

B. & O. Railroad Announces Plans For Improvement.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 6.—President Daniel Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio, announced through the local office that $27,000,000 will be spent on improvements and extensions in West Virginia and western Pennsylvania in the next year.

The road will be four tracked between Pittsburgh and McKeesport. Two additional tracks will be laid between McKeesport and Conneville to meet the demands of the abnormal coal and coke shipments. This project entails a rock cut forty-two miles long and will be among the costliest of the improvement jobs.

East of Conneville three tracks will be constructed to Do-Gully, W. Va., fifteen miles. This line taps the West Virginia coal fields. A two-track line will be built between Orleans road and Little Cacapon, W. Va., and a cantilever bridge over the Allegheny river at Pittsburgh will cost $3,000,000.

SENATE CONFIRMS WILSON'S CABINET

List Unchanged When Sent to Upper House.

Washington, March 6.—After a short session the senate confirmed all the cabinet nominations as sent in by President Wilson.

As the cabinet nominations left the White House it was officially announced that the list was exactly as published previously.

Some opposition to the appointment of William C. Redfield as secretary of commerce was made by Senator Gallinger in executive session. Mr. Redfield had been active in a house committee investigation of two local fire insurance companies in which the name of a relative of Senator Gallinger was brought in. The senator finally withdrew his objection at the request of other senators.

The senate also confirmed the nomination of Edgar E. Clark to be an interstate commerce commissioner, but did not act on the nomination of John H. Marble, secretary of the commission, to be commissioner to succeed Franklin K. Lane, the new secretary of the interior.

It was said there was no hostility to Mr. Marble's nomination, but the senate wished to have his name fully considered by the senate interstate commerce committee. The nomination will probably be confirmed when the senate meets again on Friday.

The opium was part of a contraband lot gathered in raids made by Surveyor Edward G. Graves.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.

Overworked, run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Miss Richter's experience. She says: "Last winter I was completely run down and felt fagged out all the time, was nervous and had indigestion.

"One of my friends advised me to take Vinol, and it has done me great good. The tired, worn-out, feeling is all gone and I am strong, vigorous and well. The stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have perfect digestion. I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol." Marie Richter, Detroit, Mich.

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength-creating effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money.

KERN SELECTED SENATE LEADER

Row in Democratic Caucus Fails to Materialize.

PALMER HOUSE CHAIRMAN

Dominant Party Without Friction Prepares to Organize Congress For the Special Session.

Washington, March 6.—The Democrats of both house and senate in the new congress met in caucus to prepare for the work ahead in the special session, which is to be called by President Wilson for April 1.

Both meetings were harmonious, and whatever friction may develop was under the surface as the congressmen assembled.

In the senate caucus the storm over the floor leadership which had threatened for several days failed utterly to materialize, and Senator John W. Kern was unanimously chosen.

Senator Martin, of Virginia, retiring Democratic leader, declared a few days ago he was glad to lay down the responsibilities of that position. The retirement of Senator Martin and the election of Senator Kern ended a long struggle for control between the so-called Progressive Democrats and the conservatives.

It was generally understood that there would be no move to disturb the old leaders in their committee assignments.

The caucus authorized Senator Kern to appoint a committee of nine to devise a plan for the reorganization of the senate committees. Senator Newlands, of Nevada, was chosen as vice chairman and Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware, one of the newly-elected members of the body, was named as secretary of the caucus.

Senator Tillman expressed a preference for the chairmanship of the committee on appropriations, and said President Wilson had advised his selection as chairman of that committee.

fee. President Wilson, he said, was heartily for economy.

Republican senators also held a caucus and selected as their chairman and floor leader Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire. They authorized Gallinger to select a committee on committees which will have charge of filling the Republican places. There was no opposition to the seniority rule.

Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, was chosen secretary of the caucus. Senator LaFollette was present, but Senators Bristow, Poinsett and Clapp did not appear. The two latter have been classified as Progressives, but Republicans expect Senator Clapp would participate in the Republican committee assignments.

Democratic members of the new house of representatives—the majority of which will shape legislation on the tariff and other important measures—also assembled in caucus to organize for the work of the coming session.

The meeting was held at the call of Representative Burleson, of Texas, as caucus chairman, postmaster general in President Wilson's cabinet.

Amid applause, Representative Underwood, of Alabama, nominated Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, for chairman of caucus and Mr. Rothermel, of Pennsylvania, seconded the nomination. Mr. Palmer was elected and immediately took the chair. Representative Ashbrook, of Ohio, was re-elected secretary.

A rule was adopted requiring that hereafter fifty signatures should be necessary for the calling of a caucus instead of twenty-five, as under the old rule.

Champ Clark was renominated for speaker amid a chorus of cheers and yells. He is assured of election by the house.

Representative Underwood, of Alabama, was chosen again to be chairman of the ways and means committee. This retains him as the house floor leader.

Levi P. Morton III.

New York, March 6.—Announcement was made by the family that Levi P. Morton, vice president in the Harrison administration, and former governor of New York, is seriously ill at his Fifth avenue residence. He is eighty-nine years old.
